Dear Charles

Re: Certificate of Long-Standing Membership

It gives me great pleasure to write to you congratulating you on reaching the milestone of 40 years of AusIMM membership.

Few people can claim to have been a member of a professional body for such a period of time and I do hope that your membership continues for many more years into the future.

AusIMM's role as the peak body for all resources professionals is to uphold the highest professional standards, and to support our members in building their careers. Your long-standing membership is a testament to your loyalty to AusIMM and our values and goals.

Accompanying this letter is a certificate recognising your years of membership and on behalf of the AusIMM Board I thank you for your continued membership of the AusIMM.

Yours sincerely,
